* These institutions are those which belong to both lists of global systematically important institutions (G-SIIs) and O-SIIs. It should be noted that, in accordance with Article 32 of the Order of 3 November 2014 on capital buffers of banking service providers and investment firms other than asset management companies, the consolidated surcharge applying to a group is limited: it cannot exceed the highest surcharge between that applicable to G-SIIs (up to 3.5% maximum) and that applicable to O-SIIs (up to 2% maximum).

 Based on the list of G-SIIs published by the Financial Stability Board (FSB) in November 2017.

¹ According the French Monetary and Financial Code, pursuant to Article L511-41-1 A VII, the ACPR shall establish a list of other systematically important institutions. Under this framework, it complies with the provisions of the Order of 3 November 2014 on capital buffers of banking service providers and investment firms other than asset management companies.
